The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://cat.eduroam.org>. The page header includes the eduroam logo and navigation links: Start page, About, Language, Help, Manage, and Terms of use. The main content area is titled "Biological Research Centre" and features a "select another" link. A central message reads: "If you encounter problems, then you can obtain direct support from the helpdesk of Biological Research Centre. email: support@brc.hu tel: +3662599600/911 This entry was last updated at: 2020-12-09 13:21:18". Below this, it says "Welcome aboard the eduroam® user community!" and "Your download will start shortly. In case of problems with the download, please contact the helpdesk of Biological Research Centre." A "Dear user from Biological Research Centre," message follows, stating: "we would like to warmly welcome you among the several million users of eduroam®! From now on, you will be able to use internet access resources on thousands of universities, research centres and other places all over the globe. All of this completely free of charge! Now that you have downloaded and installed a client configurator, all you need to do is find an eduroam® hotspot in your vicinity and enter your user credentials (this is our fancy name for 'username and password' or 'personal certificate') - and be online! Should you have any problems using this service, please always contact the helpdesk of Biological Research Centre. They will diagnose the problem and help you out. You can reach them via the means shown above." A link "Back to downloads" is provided at the bottom. A file dialog box is open in the center, titled "Opening eduroam-W10-BRC_Eduroam_Installer.exe". It displays "You have chosen to open:" followed by a file icon and the name "eduroam-W10-BRC_Eduroam_Installer.exe", which is identified as an "exe File (153 kB)" from "https://cat.eduroam.org". The dialog asks "Would you like to save this file?" and has "Save File" and "Cancel" buttons.

- Click on the "Next" button appearing in the window at the center of the screen!

Security Warning ✕

 You are about to install a certificate from a certification authority (CA) claiming to represent:

eduroam.brc.hu

Windows cannot validate that the certificate is actually from "eduroam.brc.hu". You should confirm its origin by contacting "eduroam.brc.hu". The following number will assist you in this process:

Thumbprint (sha1): 295B4183 9FB9E342 A9D45EA0 C65ACA59 EA70621C

Warning:
If you install this root certificate, Windows will automatically trust any certificate issued by this CA. Installing a certificate with an unconfirmed thumbprint is a security risk. If you click "Yes" you acknowledge this risk.
